Art Unit: 1754

Serial No. 09/225,082

Examiner: C. Nguyen

Filed: January 4, 1999

Date: November 9, 2001

For: Catalyst and Process for
Oxidation and Removal
Of NO<sub>x</sub> from Combustion Gases

SUPPLEMENTAL AMENDMENT UNDER 37CFR 1.116

Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, DC 20231

Sir:

During prosecution of the above-identified patent application, the Examiner issued a Final Action dated June 25, 2001 and also has issued an Advisory Action dated October 15, 2001 stating that applicant's Amendment Under 37CFR 1.116 dated September 24, 2001 would not be entered, because it raised new issues that would require further consideration and/or search, and also raised an issue of new matter. Consequently, applicants are now re-filing the above-identified patent application as a continuation-in-part application containing some additional material and revised claims for continued prosecution.

The small entity extension fee for response within the second month ($200) should be withdrawn from our Deposit Account No. 08-3636.

Respectfully submitted,

Fred A. Wilson
